Rewarding You For Building Your Business

Unlike many companies that use the referral marketing distribution system, MonaVie™ has made a commitment to the newest distributors by reinvesting a portion of the commissions into bulk-pricing discounts. By using a bulk-pricing program, MonaVie™ is putting the money in the hands of the newest distributor who's just starting their business. This allows the distributor to experience increased profits, faster, while building their business with the most-effective and exciting tool MonaVie™ has...the product itself.

The most-effective business building technique (to date) is connecting people with the MonaVie™ product and the MonaVie™ product with more people who desire greater health and/or a wealth-creating opportunity.

The MonaVie™ Bulk-Pricing Program facilitates this activity for the newest distributor. Bulk ordering discounts are designed to assist in building your retail sales business.
